Your Excellency,

I would like to express my profound gratitude and sincere appreciation to You for the commitment, dedication and contribution to responding to the challenges facing seafarers who are in the "front line" of the global fight against the pandemic.

In support of the seafarers stranded at sea and/or unable to travel due the introduced curtailments, the State Maritime Agency has introduced new amendments to the currently applicable measures in order to facilitate international trade and avoid unnecessary interference in these unprecedented circumstances.

We would appreciate if this communication could be circulated and brought into the attention of the all Member States and interested parties.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Enclosure: 1 page

Yours Sincerely,

Capt. Gudrat Gurbanov
Director of the State Maritime Agency

Subject: Amendments to the adopted procedures for the mitigation of disruption to the delivery of essential services in the event of COVID-19 pandemic

Recognizing the vital role of seafarers in conducting global trade and reaffirming seafarers as key workers that deliver vital medical supplies, critical agricultural products, and other essential goods and services across borders,

Noting the importance of maintaining efficient shipping services by minimizing inevitable disruption during the current COVID-19 outbreak,

Having considered the relevant recommendations of IMO on taking a pragmatic and practical approach with regard to the extension of certificates and endorsements in accordance with the International Convention on Standards of Training, Certification and Watchkeeping for Seafarers, 1978, as amended, and

Recognizing also the significance of facilitation of shore leave and transit and transfer of seafarers in terms of seafarers' general well-being, along with ensuring maritime safety and protection of marine environment,

In view of the difficulty in obtaining certificates/documents due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the State Maritime Agency adopted the following amendments to the procedures indicated in the Circular Letter of the State Maritime Agency No.120/01/04-17.4/374 dated 08 September 2020 (IMO Circular Letter No.4223/Add.2 of 08 September 2020),

1. The validity of certificates, the endorsements for recognition of certificates issued by other Governments and other documents issued in accordance with the International Convention on Standards of Training, Certification and Watchkeeping for Seafarers, 1978, as amended, and the validity of Seafarers Identity Documents issued in line with Seafarers' Identity Documents Convention (Revised), 2003, as amended (No. 185) are extended until 31 March 2021 inclusive, if the validity of such certificates/documents has expired or is due to expire onboard ships engaged in international voyages.
2. The submission of the following documents for the extension of the validity of the certificates/documents shall remain in force:
 - .2.1 Official letter from the concerned ship owner/principal, crewing agent or seafarer stating the reason for the extension;
 - .2.2 Written statement or official issuance from the port or immigration Authority that disembarkation is not allowed in the wake of the current circumstances;
 - .2.3 Copy of valid employment contract.
